Proposed Constitution as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation

Model: The Charity Commission’s “Association” model constitution

Date of constitution (last amended 28nd November 2020)

CONSTITUTION OF A CHARITABLE INCORPORATED ORGANISATION WITH VOTING MEMBERS OTHER THAN ITS CHARITY TRUSTEES

1. Name

The name of the Charitable Incorporated Organisation (the CIO) is the “British Association for Surgery of the Knee”.

2. National location of principal office

The principal office of the CIO is The British Orthopaedic Association Offices, The Royal College of Surgeons of England, Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, WC2A 3PE, England.

3. Objects

The objects of the CIO are to support and promote such charitable purposes as the Trustees may in their absolute discretion determine and in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing:-

For the public benefit, to preserve and protect public health, in particular but not exclusively by:

A: promoting high quality care of patients with knee problems or requiring knee surgery in the UK through promoting best practice;

B: promoting scientific research relating to knee pathology, surgery and allied fields by providing a platform for presentation and dissemination of such research and by the provision of grants for such research;

C: advancing education and training in the field of knee pathology and surgery and allied fields;

D: acting as a forum for dissemination of advice for other related bodies with regard to the practice of knee surgery.

Nothing in this Constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the CIO for the purposes which are not charitable.

4. Powers

The CIO has power to do anything which is calculated to further its objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the CIO's powers include power to:

- 4.1. borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of its property as security for the repayment of the money borrowed. The CIO must comply as appropriate with sections 124 and 125 of the Charities Act 2011 if it wishes to mortgage land;
- 4.2. buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;
- 4.3. sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the CIO. In exercising this power, the CIO must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 119-123 of the Charities Act 2011;
- 4.4. employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the CIO. The CIO may employ or remunerate a charity trustee only to the extent that it is permitted to do so by clause 6 (Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons) and provided it complies with the conditions of those clauses;
- 4.5. deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund-manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of the CIO to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000.

5. Application of income and property

- 5.1 The income and property of the CIO must be applied solely towards the promotion of its object.
 - i. A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the CIO or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the CIO.
 - ii. A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the CIO's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.

5.2 None of the income or property of the CIO may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the CIO. This does not prevent a member who is not also a charity trustee receiving:

- i. a benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary of the CIO;
- ii. reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the CIO

5.3 Nothing in this clause shall prevent a charity trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by clause 6.

6. Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons

6.1. General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

- 6.1.1. buy or receive any goods or services from the CIO on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- 6.1.2. sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the CIO;
- 6.1.3. be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the CIO;
- 6.1.4. receive any other financial benefit from the CIO;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause 6.2, or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission (the Commission) has been obtained. In this clause, a financial benefit means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

6.2. Scope and powers permitting trustees' or connected persons' benefits

- 6.2.1. A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary provided that it is available generally to the beneficiaries of the CIO.
- 6.2.2. A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the CIO where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.
- 6.2.3. Subject to sub-clause 6.3 a charity trustee or connected person may provide the CIO with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the CIO by the charity trustee or connected person.

- 6.2.4. A charity trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the CIO at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- 6.2.5. A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the CIO. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- 6.2.6. A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the CIO on the same terms as members of the public.

6.3. Payment for supply of goods only - controls

The CIO and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause 6.2.3 if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- 6.3.1. The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between the CIO and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (the supplier).
- 6.3.2. The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- 6.3.3. The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the CIO to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- 6.3.4. The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her with regard to the supply of goods to the CIO.
- 6.3.5. The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.
- 6.3.6. The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.

6.3.7. A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.

6.4. In sub-clauses 6.2 and 6.3:

6.4.1. the CIO includes any company in which the CIO:

- (a) holds more than 50% of the shares; or
- (b) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
- (c) has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company;

6.4.2. connected person includes any person within the definition set out in clause 30 (Interpretation).

7. Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty

A charity trustee must:

- 7.1. declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the CIO or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the CIO which has not previously been declared; and
- 7.2. absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the CIO and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest). Any charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.

8. Liability of members to contribute to the assets of the CIO if it is wound up

If the CIO is wound up, the members of the CIO have no liability to contribute to its assets and no personal responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.

9. Membership of the CIO

9.1. Admission of new members

9.1.1. Eligibility

- (a) Membership of the CIO is open to anyone who is interested in furthering its purposes, and who, by applying for membership, has indicated his or her agreement to become a member and acceptance of the duty of members set out in sub-clause 9.3 and described in the bylaws of the association.
- (b) A member may only be an individual.

9.2. Admission procedure

The charity trustees:

- (a) may require applications for membership to be made in any reasonable way that they decide; and in accordance with the bylaws of the association.
- (b) shall, if they approve an application for membership, notify the applicant of their decision within 21 days;
- (c) may refuse an application for membership if they believe that it is in the best interests of the CIO for them to do so;
- (d) shall, if they decide to refuse an application for membership, give the applicant their reasons for doing so, within 21 days of the decision being taken, and give the applicant the opportunity to appeal against the refusal; and
- (e) shall give fair consideration to any such appeal, and shall inform the applicant of their decision, but any decision to confirm refusal of the application for membership shall be final.

9.3. Transfer of membership

Membership of the CIO cannot be transferred to anyone else.

9.4. Duty of members

9.4.1 It is the duty of each member of the CIO to exercise his or her powers as a member of the CIO in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO.

9.4.2 It is the duty of a member to keep the Secretary of the Association informed of their up-to-date postal and electronic (email) contact details to allow appropriate communication from the CIO in relation to business or voting matters that involve the member.

9.4.3 Other duties of a member may be determined from time to time by the trustees and included in the bylaws of the Association.

9.5. Termination of membership

9.5.1. Membership of the CIO comes to an end if:

- (a) the member dies; or
- (b) the member sends a notice of resignation to the charity trustees; or
- (c) any sum of money owed by the member to the CIO is not paid in full within six months of its falling due; or
- (d) the charity trustees decide that it is in the best interests of the CIO that the member in question should be removed from membership, and pass a resolution to that effect.

9.5.2. Before the charity trustees take any decision to remove someone from membership of the CIO they must:

- (a) inform the member of the reasons why it is proposed to remove him or her from membership;
- (b) give the member at least 21 clear days' notice in which to make representations to the charity trustees as to why he or she should not be removed from membership;
- (c) at a duly constituted meeting of the charity trustees, consider whether or not the member should be removed from membership;
- (d) consider at that meeting any representations which the member makes as to why the member should not be removed; and
- (e) allow the member to make those representations in person (or virtually/electronically) at that meeting, if the member so chooses.

9.6. Membership fees

The CIO may require members to pay reasonable membership fees to the CIO on an annual basis. Membership fees are non-refundable. Details of membership fees will be documented in the Association bylaws and updated annually.

9.7. Classes of membership

9.7.1. The categories of membership, whose rights shall be determined by the charity trustees and set out in the CIO's bylaws, include:

- (a) Full members
- (b) Emeritus members
- (c) Associate members

9.7.2. The charity trustees may create any additional classes of voting or non-voting membership and may determine the rights and obligations of any such members (including payment of membership fees), which will be recorded in the bylaws.

9.7.3. Other references in this constitution to 'members' and 'membership' do not apply to non-voting members, and non-voting members do not qualify as members for any purpose under the Charities Acts, General Regulations or Dissolution Regulations.

10. Members' decisions

10.1. General provisions

Except for those decisions that must be taken in a particular way as indicated in sub-clause 10.4, or those decisions which are delegated to a committee as indicated in sub-clause [19.1], decisions pertaining to the day to day running of the CIO ("day to day decisions") will be taken by a vote of the Trustees as indicated in section 18. Day to day decisions will include, but are not limited to, the following:

- The consideration and appointment of CIO trustees
- Investment of surplus funds
- Appointment of administrative staff
- Appointment of CIO accountants
- Entering into contracts relating to educational events, conferences and meetings
- Changes to association bylaws

If the Trustees cannot reach agreement or determine that a particular decision needs the opinion of the wider membership, then the wider membership of the CIO may be approached to vote at a general meeting as provided in sub-clause 10.2 or by written resolution as provided in sub-clause 10.3.

10.2. Taking ordinary decisions by vote

All decisions made in the day to day running of the CIO ("day to day decisions") will be made by a vote amongst the Trustees of the CIO. Subject to sub-clause 10.4 of this clause, any decision that requires a vote from the wider members of the CIO may be taken by means of a resolution at a general meeting. Such a resolution may be passed by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including votes cast by postal or email ballot, and proxy votes).

10.3. Taking ordinary decisions by written resolution without a general meeting

10.3.1. Subject to sub-clause 10.4, a resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority of all the members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective, provided that:

- (a) a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to all the members eligible to vote; and
- (b) a simple majority of members has signified its agreement to the resolution in a document or documents which are received at the principal office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date. The document signifying a member's agreement must be authenticated by their signature, by a statement of their identity accompanying the document, or in such other manner as the CIO has specified.

10.3.2. The resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more members has signified their agreement.

10.3.3. Eligibility to vote on the resolution is limited to members who are members of the CIO on the date when the proposal is first circulated in accordance with paragraph 10.3.1 above.

10.3.4. Not less than 10% of the members of the CIO may request the charity trustees to make a proposal for decision by the members.

10.3.5. The charity trustees must within 21 days of receiving such a request comply with it if:

- (a) The proposal is not frivolous or vexatious, and does not involve the publication of defamatory material;
- (b) The proposal is stated with sufficient clarity to enable effect to be given to it if it is agreed by the members; and
- (c) Effect can lawfully be given to the proposal if it is so agreed.

10.3.6. Sub-clauses 10.3.1 to 10.3.3 apply to a proposal made at the request of members.

10.4. Decisions that must be taken in a particular way

- 10.4.1. Any decision to remove a trustee must be taken in accordance with clause 15.2.
- 10.4.2. Any decision to amend this constitution must be taken in accordance with clause 28 of this constitution (Amendment of Constitution).
- 10.4.3. Any decision to wind up or dissolve the CIO must be taken in accordance with clause 29 of this constitution (Voluntary winding up or dissolution). Any decision to amalgamate or transfer the undertaking of the CIO to one or more other CIOs must be taken in accordance with the provisions of the Charities Act 2011.

11. General meetings of members

11.1. Types of general meeting

- 11.1.1. There must be an annual general meeting (AGM) of the members of the CIO. The first AGM must be held within 18 months of the registration of the CIO, and subsequent AGMs must be held at intervals of not more than 15 months. The AGM must receive the annual statement of accounts (duly audited or examined where applicable) and the trustees' annual report.
- 11.1.2. Other general meetings of the members of the CIO may be held at any time.
- 11.1.3. All general meetings must be held in accordance with the following provisions.

11.2. Calling general meetings

- 11.2.1. The charity trustees:
 - (a) must call the annual general meeting of the members of the CIO and identify it as such in the notice of the meeting; and
 - (b) may call any other general meeting of the members at any time.
- 11.2.2. The charity trustees must, within 21 days, call a general meeting of the members of the CIO if:

- (a) they receive a request to do so from at least 30% of the members of the CIO; and
 - (b) the request states the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting, and is authenticated by the member(s) making the request.
- 11.2.3. If, at the time of any such request, there has not been any general meeting of the members of the CIO for more than 12 months, then sub-clause 11.2.2(a) shall have effect as if 15% were substituted for 30%.
- 11.2.4. Any such request may include particulars of a resolution that may properly be proposed, and is intended to be proposed, at the meeting.
- 11.2.5. A resolution may only properly be proposed if it is lawful, and is not defamatory, frivolous or vexatious.
- 11.2.6. Any general meeting called by the charity trustees at the request of the members of the CIO must be held within 28 days from the date on which it is called.
- 11.2.7. If the charity trustees fail to comply with this obligation to call a general meeting at the request of its members, then the members who requested the meeting may themselves call a general meeting.
- 11.2.8. A general meeting called in this way must be held not more than 3 months after the date when the members first requested the meeting.
- 11.2.9. The CIO must reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the members calling a general meeting by reason of the failure of the charity trustees to duly call the meeting, but the CIO shall be entitled to be indemnified by the charity trustees who were responsible for such failure.

11.3. Notice of general meetings

- 11.3.1. The charity trustees, or, as the case may be, the relevant members of the CIO, must give at least 14 clear days' notice of any general meeting to all of the members, and to any charity trustee of the CIO who is not a member.
- 11.3.2. If it is agreed by not less than 90% of all members of the CIO, any resolution may be proposed and passed at the meeting even though the requirements of sub-clause 11.3.1 have not been met. This sub-clause does not apply where a specified period of notice is strictly required by another clause in this constitution, by the Charities Act 2011 or by the General

Regulations.

- 11.3.3. The notice of any general meeting must:
- (a) state the time and date of the meeting;
 - (b) give the address (physical location or virtual meeting address) at which the meeting is to take place;
 - (c) give particulars of any resolution which is to be moved at the meeting, and of the general nature of any other business to be dealt with at the meeting; and
 - (d) if a proposal to alter the constitution of the CIO is to be considered at the meeting, include the text of the proposed alteration;
 - (e) include, with the notice for the AGM, the trustees' annual report, details of persons standing for election or re-election as trustee, or where allowed under clause 22 (Use of electronic communication), details of where the information may be found on the CIO's website.
- 11.3.4. Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted; or that an electronic form of notice was properly addressed and sent, shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Notice shall be deemed to be given 48 hours after it was posted or sent.
- 11.3.5. The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated because a member who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of accidental omission by the CIO.

11.4. Chairing of general meetings

The President or his/her nominated deputy will chair all meetings of the Trustees and the CIO.

11.5. Quorum at general meetings

- 11.5.1. No business may be transacted at any general meeting of the members of the CIO unless a quorum is present when the meeting starts.
- 11.5.2. Subject to the following provisions, the quorum for general meetings shall be 10% of members.
- 11.5.3. If the meeting has been called by or at the request of the members and a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the meeting is closed.

- 11.5.4. If the meeting has been called in any other way and a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the chair must adjourn the meeting. The date, time and place at which the meeting will resume must either be announced by the chair or be notified to the CIO's members at least seven clear days before the date on which it will resume.
- 11.5.5. If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the start time of the adjourned meeting, the member or members present at the meeting constitute a quorum.
- 11.5.6. If at any time during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting may discuss issues and make recommendations to the trustees but may not make any decisions. If decisions are required which must be made by a meeting of the members, the meeting must be adjourned.

11.6. Voting at general meetings

- 11.6.1. Any decision other than one falling within clause 10.4 (Decisions that must be taken in a particular way) shall be taken by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including proxy and postal votes). Every member has one vote.
- 11.6.2. A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is duly demanded. A poll may be demanded by the chair or by at least 10% of the members present in person or by proxy at the meeting.
- 11.6.3. A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair the meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately. A poll on any other matter shall be taken, and the result of the poll shall be announced, in such manner as the chair of the meeting shall decide, provided that the poll must be taken, and the result of the poll announced, within 30 days of the demand for the poll.
- 11.6.4. A poll may be taken :
 - (a) at the meeting at which it was demanded; or
 - (b) at some other time and place specified by the chair; or
 - (c) through the use of postal or electronic communications.

11.6.5. In the event of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting shall have a second, or casting vote.

11.6.6. Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is cast and the decision of the chair of the meeting shall be final.

11.7. Adjournment of meetings

The chair may with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting to another time and/or place. No business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting except business which could properly have been transacted at the original meeting.

11.8. Proxy voting

11.8.1. The CIO may, if the charity trustees so decide, allow any member of the CIO to appoint another person as a proxy to exercise all or any of that member's rights to attend, speak and vote at a general meeting of the CIO. Proxies must be appointed by a notice in writing (a proxy notice) which:

- (a) states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;
- (b) identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
- (c) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the CIO may determine; and
- (d) is delivered to the CIO in accordance with the constitution and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

11.8.2. The CIO may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

11.8.3. Proxy notices may (but do not have to) specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

11.8.4. Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and

- (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

11.8.5. A member who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the CIO by or on behalf of that member.

11.8.6. An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the CIO a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the member by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

11.8.7. A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

11.8.8. If a proxy notice is not signed or authenticated by the member appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence that the person who signed or authenticated it on that member's behalf had authority to do so.

11.9. Postal Voting

11.9.1. The CIO may, if the charity trustees so decide, allow the members to vote by post or electronic mail (email) to elect charity trustees or to make a decision on any matter that is being decided at a general meeting of the members.

11.9.2. The charity trustees must appoint at least two persons independent of the CIO to serve as scrutineers to supervise the conduct of the postal/email ballot and the counting of votes.

11.9.3. If postal and/or email voting is to be allowed on a matter, the CIO must send to members of the CIO not less than 21 days before the deadline for receipt of votes cast in this way:

- (a) a notice by email, if the member has agreed to receive notices in this way under clause 22 (Use of electronic communication), including an explanation of the purpose of the vote and the voting procedure to be followed by the member, and a voting form capable of being returned by email or post to the CIO, containing details of the resolution being put to a vote, or of the candidates for election, as applicable;

- (b) a notice by post to all other members, including a written explanation of the purpose of the postal vote and the voting procedure to be followed by the member; and a postal voting form containing details of the resolution being put to a vote, or of the candidates for election, as applicable.

- 11.9.4. The voting procedure must require all forms returned by post to be in an envelope with the member's name and signature, and nothing else, on the outside, inside another envelope addressed to The Scrutineers for BASK, at the CIO's principal office or such other postal address as is specified in the voting procedure.
- 11.9.5. The voting procedure for votes cast by email must require the member's name to be at the top of the email, and the email must be authenticated in the manner specified in the voting procedure.
- 11.9.6. Email votes must be returned to an email address used only for this purpose and must be accessed only by a scrutineer.
- 11.9.7. The voting procedure must specify the closing date and time for receipt of votes and must state that any votes received after the closing date or not complying with the voting procedure will be invalid and not be counted.
- 11.9.8. The scrutineers must make a list of names of members casting valid votes, and a separate list of members casting votes which were invalid. These lists must be provided to a charity trustee or other person overseeing admission to, and voting at, the general meeting. A member who has cast a valid postal or email vote must not vote at the meeting, and must not be counted in the quorum for any part of the meeting on which he or she has already cast a valid vote. A member who has cast an invalid vote by post or email is allowed to vote at the meeting and counts towards the quorum.
- 11.9.9. For postal votes, the scrutineers must retain the internal envelopes (with the member's name and signature). For email votes, the scrutineers must cut off and retain any part of the email that includes the member's name. In each case, a scrutineer must record on this evidence of the member's name that the vote has been counted, or if the vote has been declared invalid, the reason for such declaration.
- 11.9.10. Votes cast by post or email must be counted by all the scrutineers before the meeting at which the vote is to be taken. The scrutineers must provide to the person chairing the meeting written confirmation of the number of valid votes received by post and email and the number of votes received which were invalid.
- 11.9.11. The scrutineers must not disclose the result of the postal/email ballot until after votes taken by hand or by poll at the meeting, or by poll after the meeting, have been counted. Only at this point shall the scrutineers declare the result of the valid votes received, and these votes shall be included in the declaration of the result of the vote.

11.9.12. Following the final declaration of the result of the vote, the scrutineers must provide to a charity trustee or other authorised person bundles containing the evidence of members submitting valid postal votes; evidence of members submitting valid email votes; evidence of invalid votes; the valid votes; and the invalid votes.

11.9.13. Any dispute about the conduct of a postal or email ballot must be referred initially to a panel set up by the charity trustees, to consist of two trustees and two persons independent of the CIO. If the dispute cannot be satisfactorily resolved by the panel, it must be referred to Electoral Reform Services.

12. Charity trustees

12.1. Functions and duties of charity trustees

The charity trustees shall manage the affairs of the CIO and may for that purpose exercise all the powers of the CIO. It is the duty of each charity trustee:

12.1.1. to exercise his or her powers and to perform his or her functions as a trustee of the CIO in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO; and

12.1.2. to exercise, in the performance of those functions, such care and skill as is reasonable in the circumstances having regard in particular to:

(a) any special knowledge or experience that he or she has or holds himself or herself out as having; and

(b) if he or she acts as a charity trustee of the CIO in the course of a business or profession, to any special knowledge or experience that it is reasonable to expect of a person acting in the course of that kind of business or profession.

12.2. Eligibility for trusteeship

12.3. Number of charity trustees

12.3.1. There must be at least six charity trustees. If that number falls below this minimum, the remaining trustee or trustees may act only to call a meeting of the charity trustees, or appoint a new charity trustee.

- 13.2. Most posts will have either a 2 or 3 year tenure as defined in the bylaws. It would be unusual for a tenure to be extended or for a post-holder to be able to apply for the same post again. There would need to be good justification for this, and it would need to be carried by a unanimous vote of the Trustees.
- 13.3. The Charity Trustees may at any time decide to appoint a new charity trustee, whether in place of a trustee who has retired, been removed in accordance with clause 15 (retirement and removal of charity trustees), or as an additional trustee, provided that the limit specified in clause 12(3), would not be exceeded as a result.
- 13.4. The Presidential line shall be appointed as a progression through the roles of President-Elect, President and Immediate Past-President. The duration of each post being defined in the bylaws. An applicant for the Presidential line should have served in one of the core Executive Board roles (defined in: b, c, d, e, or f of 12.3.3 above).
- 13.5. The Trustees have the option to appoint non-executive trustees providing the maximum number of trustees would not then exceed the limit specified in clause 12(3). The appointment process, tenure and role of such non-executive trustees would be determined by the Charity Trustees and recorded in the bylaws.
- 13.6. In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.
- 13.7. In selecting individuals for appointment as charity Trustees, the charity trustees must have regards to all sections of society and enable each member to feel respected and included. The CIO aims to provide equality, fairness and respect for all members and not unlawfully discriminate under the details within the Equality Act 2010.

- 13.8. Election of new trustees shall be held as required to fill any vacancies arising or new posts created. The charity trustees will advertise such vacancies to the membership of the CIO by placement of a notice on the CIO website or via email notification. Applicants must be members of the CIO. Applications will come via nominations from members of the CIO. Charity trustees are appointed by a majority vote of the charity trustees at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.

14. Information for new charity trustees

The charity trustees will make available to each new charity trustee, on or before his or her first appointment:

- 14.1.1. a copy of this constitution and any amendments made to it; and
- 14.1.2. a copy of the CIO's latest trustees' annual report and statement of accounts.

15. Retirement and removal of charity trustees

- 15.1. A charity trustee ceases to hold office if he or she:
- 15.1.1. retires by notifying the CIO in writing (but only if enough charity trustees will remain in office when the notice of resignation takes effect to form a quorum for meetings);
 - 15.1.2. is absent without the permission of the charity trustees from all their meetings held within a period of six months and the trustees resolve that his or her office be vacated;
 - 15.1.3. dies;
 - 15.1.4. in the written opinion, given to the CIO, of a registered medical practitioner treating that person, has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a charity trustee and may remain so for more than three months;

 - 15.1.6. is disqualified from acting as a charity trustee by virtue of section 178-180 of the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision).

- 15.2. A charity trustee shall be removed from office if a resolution to remove that trustee is proposed at a general meeting of the members called for that purpose and properly convened in accordance with clause 11, and the resolution is passed by a two-thirds majority of votes cast at the meeting.
- 15.3. A resolution to remove a charity trustee in accordance with this clause shall not take effect unless the individual concerned has been given at least 14 clear days' notice in writing that the resolution is to be proposed, specifying the circumstances alleged to justify removal from office, and has been given a reasonable opportunity of making oral and/or written representations to the members of the CIO.

16. Reappointment of charity trustees

As per clause 13.2, extending a term of office, or re-appointing a trustee to the same post on the executive committee would be unusual and would require specific justification and a unanimous vote of the trustees. A member, who has previously served as a charity trustee, can apply for a new or different trustee post on the executive committee, but must go through the same competitive appointments process as other members.

- 17.2.2. the majority of all of the charity trustees has signified agreement to the resolution in a document or documents which has or have been authenticated by their signature, by a statement of their identity accompanying the document or documents, or in such other manner as the charity trustees have previously resolved, and delivered to the CIO at its principal office or such other place as the trustees may resolve within 28 days of the circulation date.

- 18.2. This power is in addition to the power of delegation in the General Regulations and any other power of delegation available to the charity trustees, but is subject to the following requirements:
 - 18.2.1. a committee may consist of two or more persons, but at least one member of each committee must be a charity trustee;
 - 18.2.2. the acts and proceedings of any committee must be brought to the attention of the charity trustees as a whole as soon as is reasonably practicable; and 19.3.2. A charity trustee shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter upon which he is not entitled to vote.
